Our Christian Covenant

We are banded together as a Christian Church to maintain the worship of God,

To proclaim the gospel of Christ, to develop in all people a consciousness of their relations and duties to God and to each other and to inspire them with love for truth, passion for righteousness, and enthusiasm for service.

To this end, we pledge our loyalty to Christ and covenant with each other to express His spirit in our individual and corporate life;

To live together as Christians and to submit ourselves to the cause of Christ, working, giving, praying for its increase, its purity, its peace and seeking in every way to make it a power for the building up of the Kingdom of God. Amen.

*Holy Communion (The Lord's Supper)

As we come to the Lord's Table, let us come with a spirit of humility and penitence.

Let us examine ourselves: our thoughts, our actions, our motives, and our attitudes toward others.

Help us to remember our responsibility to our families and our neighbors, our stewardship to You, and the work You have given to our hands.

As we eat the bread, which represents Your body, which is the True and Living Bread, open our eyes to recognize the intimacy that You yearn to share with us.

As we prepare to drink the wine, which represents Christ's bloodshed for us, we thank You for the new covenant, "Love ye one another," which is written on our hearts. Let us rejoice because our names are written in heaven.

Abide in us, Savior and Redeemer. Fill us with the life-giving power of Your Spirit now and forever. Amen.
